Building upon the foundation of last year's FIFA 18, FIFA 22 tackles many areas of the game, both on and off the pitch, and features a number of new game modes, plus the return of classic modes such as "FIFA Dream Team," "International Friendlies," and "Career Mode." The introduction of the existing PlayFab tools to FIFA 22 was another first in the soccer world. These tooling enhancements allow users to play FIFA 22 with their friends over any device, and build rich, immersive, and fully functioning FIFA Ultimate Teams (FUT) with a network of online players and clubs, all seamlessly synced across all platforms. All-new FIFA Ultimate Team modes: "FIFA Dream Team" and "My FUT" Two all-new FIFA Ultimate Team modes, "FIFA Dream Team" and "My FUT," give fans a new way to play and build their dream teams in FIFA 22. "FIFA Dream Team" combines deep strategy and planning with in-depth gameplay to help players build the best team of players available in the game. FIFA Dream Team gameplay is fluid, thanks to HyperMotion and improved passing. Players can create custom depth, change the loadout of teammates, and build teams featuring players from the game, including all-time legends, such as Pele, Maradona, Van Nistelrooy, Del Piero, and Ronaldo. Custom pre-made teams, leagues, and tournaments are available to players who want to dive in to FIFA Ultimate Team right away, all supported by live data and detailed player information. "My FUT" is an all-new social media platform for Ultimate Team that makes it even easier for fans to track players and clubs, interact with friends and fellow FUT players, and manage their squad. Players can create teams, chat with friends and other players, and use their custom player skin to create custom looks for FUT players. "My FUT" also includes the "FIFA World Cup" social app that was first released for FIFA 18. The app allows users to create new social groups for FIFA 22, or to continue the conversation where they left off in FIFA 18. The app also includes a new "Champion Battle," mode for Ultimate Teams that pits two teams against each other in a single-player tournament with unique rules, mechanics
